

2. Main itinerary;
3. Carrier(s) involved;
4. Complete list of passengers.

The books of journey forms shall be supplied by the competent authorities of the Contracting Parties, where the vehicle is registered or by bodies appointed by those authorities.

Occasional services referred to in Article 4, paragraphs 5c and 5d, can only be operated on the basis of adequate licences. The number of licences is to be determined by the responsible authorities of the countries that signed the Agreement on the occasion of the session of the Joint Committee, referred to in Article 14 of this Agreement.

Article 6

Regular and shuttle services are subject to authorisation.

Authorisations shall be issued in the name of the transport undertaking; they may not be transferred by the latter to third parties. However the carrier who has received the authorisation may operate service through a subcontractor.

The period of the validity of an authorisation shall not exceed three years for regular services and one year for shuttle services.

Authorisations shall specify the following:

1. Type of services;
2. Route of the service, giving in particular the place of departure and the place of destination;
3. Period of the validity of the authorisation;
